

Data inheritance – how it works

Data inheritance helps surviving dependants manage the important documents and login details of a deceased person. This function is switched off in the SecureSafe by default and must be set up by the SecureSafe user in the web app.

